Chapter 6

Principles of auditing and provision of services for the benefit of the audited entity

Article 68. [Legal definitions]

Whenever in the provisions of this Chapter any reference is made to:

- 1) audit documentation – it shall be understood as a record of the implemented procedures, obtained evidence of the audit, and applications of the statutory auditor, including any studies, information, notes, analyses, reports or evaluations prepared for the purpose of conducting audits of financial statements;
- 2) professional scepticism – it shall be understood as an attitude consisting in a critical attitude of the statutory auditor or the audit firm, alertness towards conditions that may indicate a possible distortion caused by an error or a fraud, and critical assessment of evidence.

Article 69. [Compliance with the principles of professional ethics; exercising professional scepticism; retaining independence when conducting audits]

1. ¹³³ When conducting an audit, performing a non-audit assurance service or a related service, the statutory auditor, shall act in the public interest and comply with the principles of professional ethics, in particular, the auditor shall:

- 1) be honest, objective, exercise professional scepticism and due diligence;
- 2) have the appropriate professional competencies;
- 3) respect professional secrecy.

2. The statutory auditor and the audit firm shall exercise professional scepticism during the audit, including in the course of its planning, assuming that there may be circumstances, including an error or a fraud, resulting in an important distortion of financial statements subjected to the audit concerning honesty and reliability of the management of the audited entity and persons responsible for managing the audited entity, including its corporate governance, regardless of previous experience of the statutory auditor or the audit firm.

3. Exercising of professional scepticism is specifically required during the statutory auditor's assessment of estimates concerning:

- 1) fair value and impairment of assets,
 - 2) reserves,
 - 3) future cash flows
- determining the capacity of the audited entity to continue its operations.

4. The audit firm, members of the audit team and a natural person, that may affect results of the audit, shall be independent from the audited entity and shall not be involved in process of making decisions by the audited entity at least in the period covered by the audited financial statement and the audit period.

5. The audit firm and the key statutory auditor shall take actions necessary to ensure that, when conducting the audit, their independence is not affected by any actual or potential conflict of interest, economic relations or any other direct or indirect relations between the audited entity and the audit firm, members of the audit team, members of the network, to which the audit firm belongs, managers of the audit firm or persons controlled thereby.

6. The audit firm and the key statutory auditor shall not conduct the audit, if there is a risk of auto-control, gaining own benefits, promotion of interests of the audited entity, amity or intimidation caused by a financial, personal, economic, employment or other relation between the audited entity and the key statutory auditor, the audit firm, a member of the network, to which the audit firm belongs, or a natural person potentially affecting results of the audit, as a result of which an objective, reasonable and informed third party would conclude that the independence of the key statutory auditor or the audit firm is compromised in spite of application of protective measures aiming at elimination or limitation of the risk to an acceptable level.

7. The key statutory auditor, the audit firm and its employees participating in the audit, as well as a natural person directly participating in the audit activities, whose services are used or supervised by the key statutory auditor or the audit firm, as well as closely related persons:

- 1) shall not have or obtain significant and direct benefits from financial instruments, including shares in equity, securities as defined by Article 3 item 1 of the Act of 29 July 2005 on Trade in Financial Instruments, credits, loans or debt instruments, including rights and obligations to purchase these financial instruments, and derivatives directly associated with these financial instruments, issued, guaranteed or otherwise supported by any audited entity in relation to which any audit activities are performed;

- 2) shall not participate in transactions the subject of which are the financial instruments specified in item 1.

8. Independence is not compromised in the case of:

- 1) having or deriving benefits by the persons or entities referred to in section 7 from:
 - a) financial instruments that are held indirectly by taking part in diversified collective investment schemes, in particular, in pension funds, investment funds and insurance capital funds offered by insurance companies, unless these programmes are controlled by the persons or entities referred to in section 7, or investment decisions undertaken with respect to these programmes are influenced by the persons or entities referred to in section 7, or
 - b) credits or loans granted on market terms as part of normal operations by the audited entities authorised to grant credits on the basis of separate regulations, or
- 2) participation in transactions, the subject of which are the instruments referred to in item 1 letter a.

9. The key statutory auditor, the audit firm, its employees participating in the audit and a natural person taking direct participation in audit activities from which services are employed, or which supervises the key statutory auditor or company the audit firm, as well as closely related persons, shall not participate in determining the result of the audit of the audited entity or otherwise affect this result, if:

- 1) they have financial instruments, including shares in equity securities as defined by Article 3 item 1 of the Act of 29 July 2005 on Trade in Financial Instruments, credits, loans or other debt instruments, including rights and obligations to purchase these financial instruments and derivatives directly associated with these financial instruments, issued by the audited entities, except for those held indirectly by taking part in diversified collective investment schemes, in particular, pension funds, investment funds and insurance capital funds offered by insurance companies, unless these programmes are controlled by these persons or companies or investment decisions undertaken with regard to these programmes are influenced by these persons or companies, and except for credits or loans granted on market terms as part of normal operations by the audited entities authorised to grant credits on the basis of separate regulations;
- 2) they have financial instruments, including shares in equity as defined by Article 3 item 1 of the Act of 29 July 2005 on Trade in Financial Instruments, credits, loans or other debt instruments, including rights and obligations to purchase these financial instruments and derivatives directly associated with these financial instruments, issued by the affiliate of the audited entity, the possession of which may result in or can be perceived by an objective, reasonable and informed third party as a cause of conflict of interest, except for those instruments held indirectly by taking part in diversified collective investment schemes, in particular, pension funds, investment funds and insurance capital funds offered by insurance companies, unless these programmes are controlled by these persons or companies or investment decisions undertaken with regard to these programmes are influenced by these persons or companies;
- 3) in the period referred to in section 4, remained in employment, economic or other relation with the audited entity, which may result in conflict of interest or can be perceived as such an objective, reasonable and informed third party;
- 4) participated in keeping the accounting books or preparation of accounting documentation or financial statements of the audited unit in the financial year preceding the period covered by the audit in the period covered by the audited statement or the period of in which the audit was conducted;

- 5) are legal representatives (proxies), members of supervisory or management bodies, or employees of the audited entity or its affiliate;
- 6) take part in the management and decision-making process within the audited entity;
- 7) provide services other than auditing, having a significant impact on the audited financial statement;
- 8) there are other circumstances compromising independence to the extent preventing this violation from being limited using any security which enables the auditors to prepare an impartial and independent audit report.

Article 70. [Limit on the revenue from services for a single entity other than a public interest entity]

1. An audit engagement regarding an entity other than a public interest entity shall not be continued in the case when in at least one year in the period of recent five years, the revenue of the audit firm from services rendered in the given financial year for the benefit of an entity other than the public interest entity or its affiliate accounted for at least 40% of the total annual revenue of the audit firm.

2. The provision of section 1 shall not apply to the first year of the audit firm's operations.

Article 71. [Prohibition of demanding and accepting any material or personal benefits]

The key statutory auditor, the audit firm, its employees participating in the audit and a natural person taking direct participation in audit activities, whose services are used or supervised by the key statutory auditor or the audit firm, as well as closely related persons cannot request nor accept from the audited entity or its affiliate any material or personal benefits, unless an objective, reasonable and informed third party would deem their value small or irrelevant.

Article 72. [Mergers and acquisitions of entities and the preservation of independence]

1. If in the period covered by financial report the audited unit was taken over by other entity, merged with other entity or took over other entity, the audit firm and members of the audit team shall determine and evaluate present and previous interests or relations with this entity, including services other than audit services provided thereto, by checking whether, they could compromise their independence and ability to continue the audit after the effective date of merger or acquisition taking into account means protection being in place.

2. The audit firm and members of the audit team, immediately and no later than within 3 months from the date of the merger or acquisition referred to in section 1, shall undertake measures necessary to terminate interests or relations that would pose a threat to their independence and until the time of their termination they shall adopt safeguards used for minimising hazards for independence resulting from previous or present interests or relations.

Article 73. [Provision of non-audit services]

Non-audit services shall be provided in accordance with the independence requirements specified for those services in professional ethics principles and standards of providing such services.

Article 74. [Responsibilities before the acceptance or continuation of an audit engagement]

1. The audit firm and the key audit partner, prior to accepting or continuing an audit engagement, shall assess and document whether:

- 1) the independence requirements referred to in Article 69–73 are met;
- 2) there are any threats to their independence and whether protections were adopted to limit them;

- 3) have competent employees, or other resources that facilitate the proper conduct of the audit;
- 4) a person appointed as the key audit partner is authorised to conduct the compulsory audits of financial statements obtained in a Member State in which it is necessary to be carried out, including whether he/she was entered in relevant registers of statutory auditors kept in a Member State in which the audit is required.

2. The audit firm and members of the audit team, prior to commencing the audit, shall submit a report on meeting the independence requirements referred to in Article 69–73 under penalty of perjury. A person submitting the report shall include therein a clause reading as follows: 'I am aware of criminal liability for submission of a false statement'. This clause replaces the information about criminal liability for submitting a false statement.

Article 75. [Prohibition of interference in the audit of financial statements]

The owner, partners or members of the management board and supervisory bodies of the audit firm or its affiliate shall not interfere in audits of financial statements conducted by the statutory auditor in a manner threatening his/her independence and objectivity.

Article 76. [Temporary ban on statutory auditors' holding certain positions in the audited entity]

1. Within the period of one year from the date of cessation of operations as the statutory auditor or the key statutory auditor or from taking direct part in the audit of a given entity the key statutory auditor and the statutory auditors conducting the statutory audit on behalf of the audit firm shall not:

- 1) belong to the senior managerial staff, nor be a member of the management board or other management body of the audited entity;
- 2) perform functions of a member of the audit committee or a body performing its functions;
- 3) perform functions of a member of the supervisory body.

2. In the case of auditing the public interest entities, the period referred to in section 1 shall be at least 2 years.

3. The following persons shall not take up the positions referred to in section 1 within the period of one year from the date of taking direct part in the audit:

- 1) employees of the audit firm and persons belonging to the senior managerial staff other than the key statutory auditors,
- 2) natural persons whose services are used or supervised by a given statutory auditor or audit firm – if they are the statutory auditors.

4. Before taking a position referred to in section 1, a candidate for a given position or function shall submit a statement on meeting the conditions referred to in sections 1–3. The statement shall be submitted, under penalty of perjury. A person submitting the report shall include therein a clause reading as follows: 'I am aware of criminal liability for submission of a false statement'. This clause replaces the information about criminal liability for submitting a false statement.

Article 77.¹³⁴ [Obligation to report the acceptance or giving of a material or personal advantage from or to a public official]

The statutory auditor who, in connection with the provision of assurance services or related services, has learned about:

- 1) acceptance of a financial or personal advantage or promise by a public official from the EU Member State or the third country,
 - 2) granting or a promise of granting a financial or personal advantage to the public official referred to in item 1,
- he/she shall immediately notify the authority appointed for crime prosecution in the Republic of Poland of this fact.

Article 78. [Statutory auditor’s secrecy]

1. ¹³⁵ The statutory auditor and the audit firm shall keep all information and documents that they accessed during the provision of assurance services and related services confidential. The obligation to maintain professional secrecy shall not be limited in time.

2. The obligation of professional secrecy shall also apply to other persons to whom information covered by this secrecy was disclosed, unless their disclosure is permitted by separate regulations.

3. The obligation of professional secrecy shall not be affected by:

- 1) reporting the suspicion of crime and providing information or transferring documents in the cases specified in this Act or separate regulations;
- 2) ¹³⁶ disclosing the documentation and information which they had access to during the provision of assurance services and related services in connection with proceedings pending before the Agency, National Disciplinary Ombudsperson or the National Disciplinary Court;
- 3) transferring documentation concerning the work performed with regard to the statutory audit by the statutory auditor or the audit firm – in the case of conducting the statutory audit of entities belonging to a group in which the parent company is based in the third country – to the statutory auditor of a group, if this documentation is necessary to conduct the audit of consolidated financial statement of the parent company.
- 4) provision of information by the statutory auditor or audit firm on the basis of Division III Chapter 11a of the Act of 29 August 1997 – Tax Regulations – to the extent specified therein.

Article 79. [Transfer of statutory audit documentation to the public statutory auditor oversight authority of a third country]

The statutory auditor or the audit firm conducting the statutory audit of an entity which:

- 1) issued securities in the third country, or
- 2) is a part of a group drawing up a consolidated financial statement in the third country
 - ¹³⁷ may transfer the statutory audit documentation or other documents related to the statutory audit to a body authorised to exercise public oversight of the statutory auditors and the audit firms from the third country only via the Agency.

Article 80. [Remuneration for audit activities]

1. Remuneration for the conduct of the audit earned by the audit firm, the statutory auditors and subcontractors acting on their behalf and for their account may not:

- 1) depend on any conditions, including audit results;
- 2) shape or depend on provision for the audited unit or its affiliates additional, non-audit services by the audit firm, any of its affiliates or any entity belonging to the network.

2. Remuneration for conduct of the audit reflects the labour intensity, the degree of complexity of works and required qualifications.

3. ¹³⁸ The provisions of sections 1 and 2 shall apply accordingly to the performance of non-audit assurance services or related services.

Article 81. [Audit firm of a group]

1. The audit firm of the group is responsible for auditing the consolidated financial statement.

2. The audit firm of a group shall prepare a report on the audit of the consolidated financial statements, and if the audited parent company has an audit committee or other body performing its functions, it shall also prepare the additional report referred to in Article 11 of Regulation No 537/2014 concerning the audit of the consolidated financial statements.

3. The audit firm of the group documents the results of its own work performed in connection with the audit of the consolidated financial statements and prepares the audit files referred to in Article 67, section 4.

4. When auditing the consolidated financial statements, the audit firm of the group may use the results of work performed by:

- 1) other audit firm and the statutory auditors acting on its behalf, or
- 2) third-country audit firm, or
- 3) third-country statutory auditors

- with regard to the auditing of financial statements or consolidation packages of entities belonging to the group, subject to reviewing work of the entities referred to in item 1–3 on the basis of a contract guaranteeing that the documentation of the audit of entities belonging to the group will be made available.

5. The audit firm of the group:

- 1) assesses work performed by:
 - a) other audit firm and the statutory auditors acting on its behalf, or
 - b) a third-country audit firm, or
 - c) third-country statutory auditors- in connection with the audit of the consolidated financial statements;
- 2) documents the nature, time and the scope of works performed by the entities referred to in item 1;
- 3) documents its review of the documentation collected for the purposes of auditing the consolidated financial statements by the entities referred to in item 1.

6. ¹³⁹ The file of the audit of the consolidated financial statements collected and prepared by the audit firm of the group is supposed to enable the Agency to review the work of the audit firm of the group.

7. ¹⁴⁰ If the audit firm of the group is not able to make the review referred to in section 4, for the purposes of proper auditing of the consolidated financial statements, it carries out additional work with regard to auditing financial statements or consolidation packages of entities being part of the group directly or based on the contract referred to in Article 48 section 2. The audit firm of the group informs the Agency about conducting additional work in connection with the inability to review.

8. ¹⁴¹ If the audit firm of the group is subject to quality assurance control or to the ad hoc control with regard to its audits of the consolidated financial statements of the group in which the parent company has the registered office in the Republic of Poland, it makes the possessed documentation of the audit of the consolidated financial statements available to the Agency upon its request, including audit documentation and documentation of work performed for the purposes of the group by another audit firm and the statutory auditors acting on its behalf, or by the audit firm or the statutory auditors coming from the third country, with regard to auditing financial statements or consolidation packages of entities being part of the group.

9. ¹⁴² If an entity belonging to the group is audited by the statutory auditor or the audit firm coming from the third country, and no agreement for exchange of documentation was signed with a competent public oversight body of the third country, the audit firm of the group shall, at the request of the Agency, deliver documentation of the audit conducted by the statutory auditor or the audit firm coming from the third country.

10. In order to ensure delivery of the documentation mentioned in section 9, the audit firm of the group shall:

- 1) have a copy thereof, or
- 2) ensure an appropriate and unrestricted access to it upon request, or
- 3) take other appropriate actions.

11. In the case when legal regulations of the third country or other obstacles prevent the audit documentation possessed by the statutory auditor or the audit firm coming from the third country from being delivered to the audit firm of the group, the documentation of the audit conducted by the audit firm of the group shall prove that it undertook actions in order to access the audit documentation possessed by the statutory auditor or the audit firm coming from the third country from being delivered, and in the case of any barriers other than any legal regulations binding in the third country – evidence of their existence.

Article 82. [Replacement of an audit firm with another audit firm]

1. In the case of replacing an audit firm with a different audit firm, the replaced company ensures to the substituting company the access to any information on the audited entities and the last audit conducted in this entity.

2. At the request of the substituting audit firm the replaced audit firm gives the access to the audit files.

3. ¹⁴³ The replaced audit firm shall demonstrate, at the request of the Agency, that the information referred to in section 1 was transferred to the substituting company.

Article 83. [Contents of the audit report]

1. After conducting the audit in accordance with national auditing standards the statutory auditor shall prepare a written report from the audit.

2. The audit report shall be formulated clearly and unambiguously.

3. The audit report shall include:

- 1) the name and the seat of the audit firm, which conducted the audit;

- 2) the name of the entity whose financial statements were audited;
- 3) indication of whether the subject of the audit was the annual financial statements of the audited entity, or the consolidated annual financial statements of the group;
- 4) indication of the balance sheet date of the financial statements as well as periods covered by the financial statements subjected to the audit;

- 9) an opinion of the statutory auditor regarding whether the audited financial statements comply in regard to the form and content with the legal regulations, statute or contract;
- 10) an opinion on whether the statement of operations was prepared according to regulations and whether it is consistent with information included in the annual financial statements;
- 11) a statement on whether, in the light of knowledge about the entity and its environment obtained during the auditing process, any significant distortions were diagnosed in the statement on operations, as well as an indication of what such significant distortion consists in;
- 12) an opinion on whether the issuer obliged to submit a corporate governance statement concluded in this statement information required in accordance with the scope specified in implementing rules issued pursuant to Article 60, section 2 of the Act of 29 July 2005 on Public Offering, Conditions Governing the Introduction of Financial Instruments to Organised Trading and Public Companies (Dz. U. of 2019, item 623) or the regulations referred to in Article 61 of this Act, and with regard to specific information indicated in these provisions or regulations – a statement of whether they are consistent with applicable regulations and information included in the annual financial statements;
- 13) explanations in which the statutory auditor refers to matters emphasised during the audit, that result in issuing an adverse opinion;
- 14) the statutory auditor's statement of any cases of significant uncertainties with regard to the events or conditions that can give rise to substantial doubts concerning the entity's capacity for continuation of operations;
- 15) a statement that the scope of audit is exclusive of guarantee of future profitability of the audited entity or effectiveness of conduct of affairs of the entity by its management or a different management body now or hereafter;
- 16) information on whether the entity referred to in Article 49b, section 1 of the Act of 29 September 1994 on Accounting, prepared a statement on non-financial information mentioned in this regulation, or a separate statement on non-financial information referred to in Article 49b section 9 of the Act of 29 September 1994 on Accounting, and in the case of affairs of the entity making use of the exemption referred to in Article 49b, section 11 of this Act – information on whether this entity revealed in its statement of operations the name and the seat of the parent company, drawing up a separate statement of the group concerning non-financial information, which will cover this entity and its subsidiaries of each level;

- 17) other elements as the statutory auditor deems necessary;
- 18) a signature of the statutory auditor and the date of preparation of the audit report.

4. The provisions of section 3, item 10 and 11 shall not apply to the statements on non-financial information referred to in Article 49b, section 1 of the Act of 29 September 1994 on Accounting, and the separate statement on non-financial information referred to in Article 49b section 9 of this Act.

5. ¹⁴⁴ The opinion mentioned in section 3 item 8 and 9 may be unqualified or adverse. If the statutory auditor is unable to give an opinion on the audited financial statement, the audit report shall include a refusal statement.

6. In the audit report referred to in section 1, one should additionally include:

- 1) an opinion on whether the audited financial statements were prepared on the basis of correctly kept accounting books;
- 2) a justification of an adverse opinion, negative opinion or refusal of issuing an opinion by the statutory auditor, along with a description of the effects of distortions being the reason for issuing such opinions or refusal;
- 3) information on the audited entity's failure to perform an obligation to submit the financial statement for a year or years preceding the financial year to the competent court register and, in relevant cases, also the obligation to announce the same, prior to preparation of the audit report;
- 4) information on significant violation of law, statute or articles of association having impact on the financial statement and observed during the audit;
- 5) information on whether the audited entity complies with binding prudential regulation specified in separate regulations, in particular whether:
